

Steve Vanlandingham has been with involved with auto repair since 1968. He started out at a Chrysler/Plymouth dealership as a new car prep technician and worked his way to heavy line repairs while participating in a four year apprenticeship program at San Diego City College. After twelve years of dealership experience he went to work for an independent repair facility for four years before opening his own repair facility on November 15, 1982. After 29 years in business Steve has had experience in all types of repairs ranging from minor to major, has current ASE certifications, maintains his California smog licence and is involved with hands on repairs on a daily basis. Steve has been active with ASCCA for over 15 years holding several positions in his local San Diego Chapter 24. He has also participated in a task force at the San Diego County Health Department and received a "Green Reward" for his shop recycle efforts. At the state level, Steve has served as an ASCCA Board Director, Chapter Representative and is current Secretary for 2012. Steve is married has three grown children and four grandkids. In addition serves as secretary in his local LE Tip chapter and is a BBB member.