Strategies for Effective Leadership

Presented by Bill Haas, AAM

Didn't think you were the leader? If you are getting kicked from behind, you must be out front. Stop expending your energy to avoid being the leader. Accept the fact that people are depending on you to provide direction, vision and purpose.

When leaders fail, people quit. Implement effective leadership strategies and improve the opportunities for your team to excel. A strategic approach creates alignment between individual or team objectives and values. Take away strategies for creating a culture, empowering your people, and providing positive influence.
