ASCCA Members to Participate in ETI ToolTech 2016 Panel Discussion

SACRAMENTO – The Automotive Services Council of California (ASCCA) today announced that some of its members will participate in a panel discussion at Equipment and Tool Institute's (ETI) 2016 annual ToolTech conference, April 25-28 in Monterey, California.

"ASCCA boasts some of the brightest men and women in California's automotive repair industry, and I'm proud that their expertise is being sought for ETI's 2016 ToolTech Conference," said ASCCA President Dennis Montalbano. "ETI puts on a great conference, and I would encourage anyone interested in learning about the latest advances, trends, and technologies in the auto industry to attend."

Held every year, the ToolTech conference helps provide automotive shop owners with the necessary tools and information to help improve their business's productivity. This year's conference will focus on all aspect of scheduling repairs, such as coordinating the amount of customers, parts needed, appropriate bay space, and employing the right technicians.

John Heist of Star Envirotech will moderate the panel. Speakers include Kevin Donohoe of Pacific Auto Service; John Eppstein of John's Automotive Care; Larry Moore of Larry's Auto Works; ASCCA President Dennis Montalbano of German Auto Repair Inc.; Nate Smith of Nate Smith Optimal Auto Care, Inc.; and John Villa of Villa Automotive.
