

Travis Guy Bio

Travis joined the Yorba Linda Auto Service (YLAS) family after earning his degree in sports journalism at Northern Arizona University. He then worked as a sports journalist in Cottonwood, Arizona. Travis has been working at Yorba Linda Auto Service since high school, when he would clean the shop to earn money. When he is not working, Travis enjoys watching and attending Angels, Arizona Cardinals, and Oregon Ducks games (depending on the season). After work Travis also likes to participate in kickboxing and grappling, or cooking something delicious at home.
